More information about the places to visit is as mentioned below,
See you soon in Putrajaya, Malaysia.

Central Market

Central Market Kuala Lumpur is a centre for Malaysian culture, art and craft located in the heart of the city. As a building with significant historical value Central Market Kuala Lumpur has come a long way from its early beginning as a wet market built in 1888 to a delightful destination for tourists, shoppers, and art lovers.

Royale Palace

The Malaysian equivalent to Buckingham Palace, the King's Palace (Istana Negara) attracts thousands of visitors with its golden domes and Islamic-style architecture. Although you can't explore the palace, you can learn about the Malaysian monarchy at the Royal Museum, located on the palace grounds.

KLCC Sightseeing

As part of our commitment to providing a comprehensive and enriching conference, we invite participants to join us for a half-day tour of Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia's dynamic capital city. The tour includes visiting the iconic Kuala Lumpur City Centre (KLCC), where you'll be captivated by the majestic PETRONAS Twin Towers.

The PETRONAS Twin Towers are a testament to architectural brilliance and modern ingenuity. These twin spires, soaring to a height of 451.9 meters, held the title of the world's tallest tower until 2004 and remain a global architectural marvel.
